

Bouches-du-Rhône

Judith Bartolani at American Gallery in Marseille

In partnership with Marseille expos during the weekend of the "Printemps de l'art contemporain" in Marseille, the American Gallery is pleased to announce its next exhibit: the recent sculptures and paintings of renowned French/Israeli artist Judith Bartolani, who will treat the theme of writing.

The opening of the show on Sunday, 15th May 2011 at 2 pm, will include a poetry reading in English and French with French poet Éric Giraud, American poet Peter Gizzi, and American writer Rachel Scher.

There will be a simultaneous sound arrangement by the French artist Hervé Nahon.

The American Gallery, 10 bis rue des Flots Bleus, 13007 Marseille. Contact: Pamela King 06 27 28 28 60, the.american.gallery@free.fr

AP' art
Alpilles-Provence'art

FESTIVAL
INTERNATIONAL
D'ART
CONTEMPORAIN

International
Contemporary Art Festival

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence

Les Baux-de-Provence

Saint-Étienne-du-Grès

8 > 13 Eygalières

Juillet Tarascon

2010 Orgon

The Festival APART

(Alpilles-Provence'Art) runs from 7th July to 17th August bringing contemporary art to 9 communities in the Alpilles. This year the exhibition was conceived with the help of contemporary art historian, Christine Blanchet and claims to not just be a series of exhibitions but a mirror of modern creation. Over the six weeks, visitors can meet, listen to and debate with over 50 artists and take part in specialised workshops. All information documents are in English and French. Bradbury Kuett, <http://provenceventouxblog.com>

For more information visit www.festival-apart.org

City quiz tours for children now in English

The website <http://tourismeenfamille.com> has recently launched a series of childrens' city tours for 6-10 year olds.

The tours are available in Arles, Aix en Provence, Salon de Provence and Marseille. With games using observation skills, hidden words and questions about general culture, the quizzes can be downloaded from the website in either French or English.